IRS regulations permit you to deduct a portion of your professional dues. See NJPSA membership packet for additional information about tax deductibility. This should not be considered tax advice. The NJPSA cautions all its members who deduct a portion of their dues that they should first speak with their accountant to determine the amount that can be deducted.

I hereby request and authorize the disbursing officer of the above school district to deduct from any earnings until notified of termination, an amount required for current year membership dues and such amounts as may be required for in each subsequent year; all as certified by said organization; such amounts to be paid to such persons as may from time to time be designated by the local association. This authorization may be terminated only by prior written notice from me effective January 1 or July 1 of any year. Upon termination of employment, the disbursing office shall deduct any remaining amount due for the current school year. I waive all rights and claims for monies so deducted and transmitted and relieve the board of education and its officers from any liability therefore.
